COMMENTS:

This bill would require that every state agency that maintains or operates a Internet website that uses any method or device to collect personal information, as defined, to prominently display the existence and purpose of such a device on an initial point of communication with the potential user.

The August 13, 1998, amendment defined "elected or appointed official" for purposes of the bill's provision prohibiting disclosure on the Internet of an elected or appointed official's home address or telephone number. The August 13, 1998, amendment also deleted a cross-reference used to define "state agency."

The August 10, 1998, amendment deleted the January 1, 2005, repeal date in the bill. Thus, this bill would remain law indefinitely.

Except for the discussion above, the department's analysis of SB 1386 as amended July 30, 1998, still applies.
